I have served as mediator in 25 mediations. I currently mediate approximately one case each week. In the summer of 1997, while attending the Federation of Insurance and Corporate Counsel meeting at the Broadmoor in Colorado, I attended a two hour session concerning mediation. On November 14 & 15, 1997, I am scheduled to attend a two day training session on mediation provided by United States Arbitration & Mediation Service. On two occasions, I have been a speaker on Bar Association mediation programs.

7. Please list all areas of substantive law or experience which are or have been a significant part of your professional background or practice.

See attached sheet.

8. [If the answer to any of the following questions is yes, please explain the circumstances on a separate sheet and attach.]

- a. Have you ever been disciplined for violation of any code of professional ethics or responsibility? No.
- b. Have you ever pled guilty to or been found guilty of a felony? No.
- c. Have you ever been found liable for fraud or any other intentional tort? No.
- d. Have you ever had a professional license revoked or suspended for reasons other than non-payment of dues? No.
- e. Have any professional malpractice judgments been entered against you? No.

9. List the courts and professional organizations in which you currently hold certifications as a neutral, mediator, arbitrator, or other ADR service provider.

United States District Court, Eastern District of Missouri; Circuit Court of the City of St. Louis - as a mediator; arbitrator - American Arbitration Association - panel of arbitrators on large and complex cases (over $1 million).

10. In the space below, briefly describe your experience, qualifications, special areas of expertise, and any other reasons why you should be selected as a neutral.

Within the past year or so, I have served as a mediator in 25 cases. I currently serve as a mediator approximately once a week. I have been a trial lawyer for 38 years. I have tried a large number of cases, and negotiated settlements in even a larger number of cases over that period of time. The cases I have handled include damage suits of all kinds, professional liability claims, business litigation, intentional torts, discrimination cases, etc. I have also served as general counsel for Tarlton Construction Company for 30 years. In 1981, I served as special counsel for all county school districts in connection with the settlement of the St. Louis Desegregation case.
