I have completed over 46 hours in Parenting Coordination training, have provided training for other professionals, and conducted research through University of Missouri on the practice to improve the process in our state. Services start with signing an appointment order designating the parenting coordinator that is handled by the parties' attorneys and the judge, and then a contract for services with our office for parenting coordination. These steps are followed up by meetings with each parent separately so that I can get to know the children, the family, and assess the areas where conflict occurs. Services are then tailored for each family based on the needs and the dynamics of the situation. We do limit the number of cases with current appointments, so please contact our office to make sure we are accepting additional cases before entering an appointment order.
