

Family Court of St. Louis County Court Approved Mediator List

Updated August 14, 2024

Notice About Mediator List

As a public service, the Family Court of St. Louis County maintains this list of private individuals who are available to serve as mediators. Mediators on the Court Approved List have certified that they meet the qualifications set by the Family Court of St. Louis County for mediating all relevant issues raised in a dissolution petition or motion to modify; these include property, financial arrangements, child custody, and related parenting issues. They are attorneys or persons who have a graduate degree in counseling, psychology, social work, or a related field. The Family Court takes no position as to the relative skills of any individual listed as a Court Approved Mediator nor does the Court take any responsibility for the services provided by such individuals. All descriptive information about the mediators contained in this list is provided to the Court by the mediators themselves. Parties may select any qualified person to mediate their divorce or related legal proceeding regardless of whether or not the mediator's name appears on this list. For information regarding free or reduced fee mediation services, contact the Family Court Administrator (314) 615-2970.

I have extensive training and experience in mediation, collaborative law, and litigation. Mediation and collaborative law are settlement-focused and should be primary considerations for parties in family law disputes. I believe the combination of a law degree and a master's degree in child development give me a unique perspective in family cases, particularly custody cases. I believe that parenting plans should be carefully crafted for the particular family's circumstances and not "off the shelf." Mediation should also be tailored to the couple's needs. I welcome attorneys to participate in the mediation if requested. I have the expertise to assist with complex financial issues, including business valuations and maintenance. I am a past chair of the Missouri Bar Family Law Section, a founding member of the St. Louis Collaborative Family Law Association, and a member of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (AAML), a national organization that promotes the highest degree of professionalism and ethics in the practice of family law. Rick Eisen is an attorney, having practiced for more than 39 years. He is a founding member of Growe Eisen Karlen Eilerts LLC. He has devoted his career to the field of family law. Rick counsels clients in all areas of family law and concentrates his practice in contested divorce and parentage matters. Rick is commonly engaged as trial counsel in complex divorce matters in St Louis City, St. Louis County, the surrounding communities, and Illinois involving business valuations, child custody, and protection of claims against marital and non-marital assets. He also assists clients with prenuptial and post nuptial agreements. With more than 42 years of experience, Rick is well known in the legal community as a skilled litigator and negotiator. Judges view Rick as prepared, methodical and unwavering as an advocate. His clients express their appreciation for Rick's intellect, attention to detail and responsiveness.

While Rick is a highly skilled litigator, he always looks and works for practical solutions in order to put his clients on a strong footing going forward. A dedicated and compassionate advocate for children, Rick's highest priority is to ensure the children are in a good place before addressing the other issues in the case.

Rick was honored in 2014 with the Kids In The Middle Champion for Kids Award and has volunteered for the organization since the 1980s. He has been named as a Super Lawyer in the area of family law since 2014 and recently honored with inclusion in Best Lawyers in America in Family Law. He is a graduate of Washington University, and of Washington and Lee University School of Law.

Rocco V. Erker is an experienced mediator and arbitrator. He has been involved in assisting people with disputes of many years. He believes that mediation is a kinder and gentler way of resolving disputes, and it allows the validation of the parties by letting them have their voices heard. It also allows the parties to resolve disputes in a more humane and expeditious manner, and one in which they can affect the outcome. He does not pass judgment on the participants, nor assess the value of their position - but he listens to them, moderates communication between them, and guides the process toward the most satisfactory outcome for all sides.

Let him be your guide, as he assists you in taking control of your disputes and achieving your peace of mind. He will empower you to make the most prudent decisions about how to best resolve your disputes.

Disputes in family law can be difficult, emotional, and expensive. Divorce and separation is stressful and partners may need consider many changes and decisions for each of them and their family. Mediation allows parents and spouses to work together to find solutions that consider the needs of both parties and their children. It also allows the parties to have more input and control of the decisions to be made.

I have been an attorney for over 30 years and a mediator for more than 20 years. I am also a Certified Public Accountant. So, I know it is important to help parties understand and discuss the issues; anticipate and plan for changes; consider how changes will affect them; and address any complex financial or tax issues. I also look for ways to add value with my services using financial planning tools when appropriate. I offer a 1/2-hour free orientation, by appointment, to help you prepare for the process. I offer some weekend and evening hours and we can mediate in-person and on-line mediation. I also offer co-mediation; parenting coordination; collaborative and cooperative law; settlement support; and some traditional litigation/trial work.

I possess a graduate of law (L.L.M.) degree in Mediation and Dispute Resolution; am a co-founder of Confluence Missouri (a nonprofit mediation resource); and provide training in civil and family law mediation and parenting coordination to other professionals, community members and the St. Louis City Police Department. I am an adjunct associate professor at Saint Louis University School of Law teaching mediation. Missouri CPA (1985); Saint Louis University-JD (1991-cum laude); University of Missouri-L.L.M. (Masters of Law) Dispute Resolution (2013); and ABA Certified of Merit in Child Advocacy (1999).

I am a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and Mediator. I can support couples with complete divorce mediation or with portions of the mediation process, i.e.; parenting plans. I can also serve as a divorce coach, supporting a client as he/she navigates the complicated process of the divorce process. Other areas of my mediation practice include assistance for unmarried or same sex couples as they separate; co-parent counseling; and teen/adolescent-parent mediation. I strongly believe mediation provides ways to support couples as they move through the divorce or separation process, helping each person be a creative participant in crafting an agreement that feels right for their unique circumstance.

Professional Experience:

I am an attorney licensed in Missouri and Illinois. My practice includes family law in Missouri and Illinois, and general civil law cases throughout Illinois. As an experienced civil litigator, my practice includes arbitration and mediation that is either voluntary or court-ordered. I began my career in family law doing "court-annexed" mediations through the St. Charles County Courts. I understand trial can be harmful to children, and promotes ongoing conflict between the parents. My approach to mediation is informed by my trial experience and by my education and experience as a mediator.

Professional Experience:

In my role as a mediator, I am experienced in facilitating cooperative discussions aimed at resolving divorces out of court. With a dedicated focus on divorce and family matters, my law firm and mediation practice cater exclusively to these areas. Leveraging my background in accounting alongside 15 years of experience as a lawyer and mediator, I'm equipped to handle a wide spectrum of financial complexities that often arise during divorce proceedings. Additionally, I provide support to parents in crafting parenting plans tailored to their unique circumstances, whether following traditional or non-traditional models. My goal is to guide clients through the mediation process with compassion and skill, enabling them to discover a resolution and move forward.

Services include court ordered mediation, on-line or in-person mediation, collaborative divorce, and traditional litigation legal representation. Call or make an appointment online.

Will consider reduced fee based on need if requested by the Court or the attorneys involved.

I have been an attorney for over 13 years, with 10 of those years devoted exclusively to the practice of family law litigation. I approach mediation with the same dedication I have for litigation, while remaining committed to the cooperative nature of the mediation process. Each family is unique, and mediation can serve as an opportunity for a family to find common ground, meet their needs, and maintain control over the outcome of their family court case. I am also a trained collaborative family law attorney.

I have practiced exclusively in the area of family law for over 13 years. I have represented men and women going through custody and child support disputes and children who are caught in the middle in my capacity as a GAL. As a mediator, my goal is to assist people in controlling the outcome of their family court matters and developing solutions that work best for their family. I am also a trained collaborative family law attorney.
