

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF ST. LOUIS
STATE OF MISSOURI

DIVISION 12 STANDING ORDER

DISCOVERY DISPUTES IN ALL CIVIL CASES

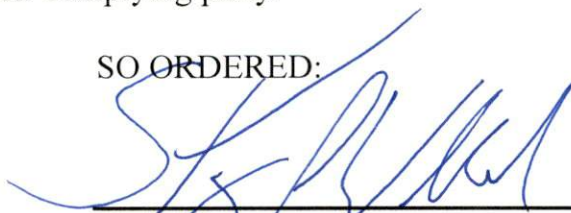

In addition to the requirements of the Missouri Rules of Civil Procedure and the requirements of the Local Rules of the 21st Judicial Circuit, no discovery disputes, including motions to compel discovery responses or motions for sanctions, will be heard in Division 12 unless, prior to obtaining a hearing date from the Division Clerk, counsel for the parties meet at least once in person or by video conference in a good faith effort to resolve their discovery disputes and file their joint Memorandum with the Court, substantially in the form attached hereto, setting forth:

1. The date of the meeting, and whether the meeting was in person or by video conference;
2. The names and bar numbers of the attorneys attending the meeting;
3. The length of the meeting;
4. A brief description of the discovery disputes not resolved at the meeting, with a copy of the discovery request(s) and the objection(s) thereto attached; and
5. A certification by counsel that their respective clients have been informed of the meeting and the inability of counsel to resolve their discovery disputes without a court appearance.

Good Cause Exception and Sanctions

A party may request excusal from the in-person meeting requirement of this Order for good cause shown, such as opposing counsel's refusal to respond to requests to meet and confer. In the event of such refusal, the moving party shall advise the Court in its motion as to what sanctions it seeks against the non-complying party.

SO ORDERED:

Hon. Stanley J. Wallach
Circuit Judge
